British Standard Compliant Comprehensive First Aider Rucksack

- Excellent portability
- Comfortable design
- 6 compartments to organise the content
- British Standard Compliant

Highly recommended to experienced first aiders and medical professionals on the move, the First Aider Rucksack provides excellent portability. This is ideal for high-risk environments outdoors or on worksites with difficult access, like construction sites or oil rigs, where supplies may need to be carried across difficult ground or up ladders. The content of the portable First Aid Kit complies with British Standard requirements for first aid kit.

The portable first aid rucksack comes in green, with a white cross and "First Aid" marking, making it easy to recognise the first aid person.
