

Rhinocan Steel Range (pictured right)

Highly recommended where safety is a high priority and for applications with a fire risk. Both standard and explo-safe are stable over 30c and are manufactured from high quality steel in our own factory in the UK.

The explo-safe fuel can contains a flame suppressant material developed in Canada and the USA. A requirement by many firefighting equipment suppliers.

Features:

- Testing carried out by T.U.V. product safety group to DIN 7242.
- 5/10lt Standard/Explosafe spec UN group 3 packing code 2 REF/A1/Y1.2/200/13/GB/6227
- Can be ordered in 5lt and 10lt capacities.
- Colour: std red, green, yellow, option to order
- Paint finish in petrol resisting epoxy/polyester.
- All supplied with flexible spout.
- Contents label
- Body embossed with petroleum spirit.
- Compliant to carry on the highway.

